Term of Reference (TOR)

5th International Conference on Education, Leadership and Innovation 2024

Background

International Conference on Education, Leadership, and Innovation, or ICELI, is an annual conference presented by Educational Management, Ahmad Dahlan University. The 5th ICELI 2024 is an international refereed conference dedicated to education. This conference is designed to provide a forum for students, education scholars, policymakers, and practitioners to engage in an informed and insightful dialogue about evolving education, leadership, and innovation in all settings in all countries.

We invite you to participate in the 4th ICELI 2023 live at Sahid Jaya Hotel, Yogyakarta, and Zoom Meeting, which will be held on August 26th, 2023. Since participants may come from different countries with various backgrounds, the conference is an excellent forum to exchange research findings and ideas on education, leadership, and innovation to build networks for further collaborations.

This conference invites research papers encompassing conceptual analysis, design implementation, and performance evaluation. The conference will allow participants to share their experiences and expertise in this connection. The participants are expected to have the opportunity to critically examine the strengths and weaknesses of different theoretical paradigms of education, leadership, and innovation.

Activity Objectives

- Exchange research findings and ideas on education, leadership, and innovation to build a network of further cooperation.
- Improving knowledge, developing the insights and competencies of lecturers, teachers, and students, and then conveying it to the broader community on matters relating to research innovations in that field of education.
- Supporting Education for Enhancing Professional Academic Culture through the dissemination of research results in the fields of education.
- Increase contribution to education through research to achieve freedom of Professional Academic Culture.

Theme

The main theme of the 5th ICELI 2024 is “Glocalizing Education for Sustainable Development: Empowering Communities for Global Impact”.
